DECLARATION OF UNDERSTANDING

1. After the admission, students must be able to maintain average grade point of 3.0/4.3. Students unable to maintain the required grades may not be entitled to scholarships and in worst case, be severed from the SNU program.
2. The Silk-Road Scholarship holders may not take a leave of absence without approval of the OIA at SNU. Appeals will be considered on an individual basis only for emergencies such as serious illness, death, natural disasters or mandatory required military service upon submission of official documentations.
3. The scholarship holders are required to write a report to the OIA at the end of every semester.
4. Students must inform the OIA immediately if there is any change in the personal information.
5. Students must acknowledge that the SNU cannot be held liable for any costs associated with any medical expenses incurred by the student at any time. It is mandatory for the Silk-Road Scholarship holders to purchase the National Health Insurance.
6. As for the temporary departure exceeding 30 days at one time, living allowance for the exceeding period is not to be given.
7. Students are expected to comply with the rules and regulations of the Seoul National University as a member of SNU & Silk-Road Scholarship holder. Failure to comply with these regulations can result in sanctions up to dismissal from the Silk-Road Scholarship program.

By signing below, the student certifies that s/he understood and is aware of all matters stated above.

SCHOLARSHIP OVERVIEW

The Silk-Road Scholarship Program is jointly funded by the SBS Foundation and Seoul National University, established in 2009 fall. This program is designed specifically for students wishing to study Humanities and Social Sciences. Currently the scholarship is awarded for five students annually with financial assistance covering the cost of full tuition fee and living expenses. Students from countries located in the area of the Silk-Road may apply. We believe that education and training of scholars in Humanities related to Korea and Social Sciences is not only central to expanding the international base of Korean studies, but also essential to strengthening global competitiveness of education and research. To this end, this program intends to promote, support, and contribute to expansion of the field of Humanities as a fundamental area of study which was left behind due to the development of technology field and continuing education and improvement of research condition for international students with financial difficulties.
