IMAGINE TALENTS

As the world's largest auction house and the strongest brand in the business, Copenhagen Fur is proud to present - Imagine Talents 2015 - a spectacular event where 21 specially selected students from around the world show off their innovation take on future fur design.

The event is the culmination of the previous year's cooperation with leading international design schools and manufacturers. At the moment Copenhagen Fur has co-operation agreements with; Royal College of Art (England), Atelier Chardon Savard (France), Tsinghua University (China), Seoul National University (South Korea), Mode Gakuen Tokyo (Japan), Design School Kolding (Denmark), and VIA University College (Denmark).

All students attending the schools fur courses have been encouraged to apply for a place at Imagine Talents at Copenhagen Fashion Week. And only the three most talented designers from each school have been chosen by Copenhagen Fur to have their personal fur style manufactured and shown at our Imagine Talents event.

We believe that the 21 designers you will see today at Imagine Talents 2015 are the up-and-coming talents of the fashion industry. We are sure that some of them, with their innovative take on design, will become the new grand names in fashion.
